

HEADNOTE

“1. A notice by the reporting judge under Rule 20.2 RoP that an opposition is to be dealt with in main proceedings can neither be challenged by appeal nor can it be made the subject of a review by the board under Rule 333.1 RoP.

2. The reporting judge, and not the board, decides on inadmissible requests under Rule 333.1 RoP.”

COURT
Local Division in Munich

PATENT
EP3611989

KEYWORDS

Opposition

Notification

PROCEEDINGS
Procedural order

Method and apparatus for transmitting wireless local area network information

Review by the Panel

Rule 20 Decision or order on a Preliminary objection

SUMMARY

The Local Division in Munich issued a procedural order. The patent at issue relates to a method and apparatus for transmitting wireless local area network information. According to the headnotes of the decision, a reporting judge's notice that an opposition will proceed to main proceedings cannot be appealed or reviewed by the board. The reporting judge, rather than the board, has authority to decide whether requests fail to meet the admissibility requirements under the Rules of Procedure.