

HEADNOTE

“An application by the appellants for acceleration of the appeal proceedings and shortening of the time limit for filing the reply to the notice of appeal pursuant to R.9.3(b) RoP is dismissed. The interests in acceleration asserted by the appellants do not outweigh the interests of the appellant in proper proceedings.”

COURT
Court of Appeal Luxembourg

PROCEEDINGS
Infringement action

PATENT
EP 2263098

POSITIONING OF MOBILE OBJECTS
BASED ON MUTUALLY TRANSMITTED SIGNALS

KEYWORDS

Acceleration of the appeal proceedings

R.225 (e)

R.9.3 (b) Rules of Procedure

Rule 9 Powers of the CourtSUMMARY

The Court of Appeal Luxembourg ruled on an infringement action. The patent at issue relates to positioning of mobile objects based on mutually transmitted signals. According to the headnotes of the decision, the appellants sought acceleration of the appeal proceedings and shortening of the reply time limit. However, the court dismissed this application. The court found that the appellants' interests in acceleration did not outweigh the respondent's interests in proper proceedings.