

HEADNOTE

“1. A member of the public who is requesting access to the Register pursuant to R.262.1(b) RoP must be represented before the UPC. In the absence of a representative, the Court of Appeal has allowed the member of the public a time period to remedy this deficit.”

COURT

Court of Appeal Luxembourg

PATENT

KEYWORDS

Public access to the register

PROCEEDINGS

Confidentiality order

representation

Rule 262 Public access to the register

SUMMARY

The Court of Appeal Luxembourg issued a decision on a confidentiality order. According to the headnotes of the decision, members of the public who request access to the UPC Register under the Rules of Procedure must be represented by a qualified representative, though the Court allowed additional time in this case for the applicant to obtain proper legal representation.